

TOM SCARLETT

PRINCIPAL CONSULTANT

TOM SCARLETT, PRINCIPAL CONSULTANT

How would you describe DPI in three words?

- Dynamic
- Agile
- Prosperous

If you weren't a principal consultant, what would you be?

In all likelihood I would go back to being a technical engineer as I'm a geek who absolutely loves constructing complicated systems, then trying to break them!

What do you enjoy about your role?

I love having the flexibility to tailor the manner in which I manage a project or situation, to ensure that it is fit for purpose and the fact that I am given the support to do so.

If you could give one piece of advice to a new starter, what would it be?

In fact I have two! Firstly, go with the flow and secondly, never be afraid to ask questions!

Tell us something about yourself that we wouldn't know?

I race vintage model cars as a hobby and I am a serious petrol head...ok, a lot of you may know that last one!

↑ Three Likes

- Cars
- Beer
- Challenges

↓ Three Dislikes

- Tequila
- Aggressiveness
- Silos